

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Meeting Agenda

- July 22 Meeting Agenda

Pre-K's Purpose

- Pre-K Panel's Statement of Purpose for Publicly Financed Pre-K in Missouri

Access

- Catch 'em Young by James J. Heckman
- The Universal vs. Targeted Debate: Should the United States Have Preschool for All? by W. Steven Barnett, Kirsty Brown and Rima Shore
- The Benefits of Prekindergarten for Middle-Income Children by Karen Schulman and W. Steven Barnett
- Clinton's Hostile Preschool Takeover by Darcy Olsen and Bruce Fuller
- Pre-K Counts Not Best for Children, Families by Andrew T. Lefevre
- Science, Politics and Preschool by Jeremy Manier
- Long-Term Economic Payoff Seen From Early-Childhood Education by Linda Jacobson

Delivery

- Is More Better? The Effects of Full-Day vs. Half-Day Preschool on Early School Achievement by Kenneth B. Robin, Ellen C. Frede, and W. Steven Barnett
- Increasing the Effectiveness of Preschool Programs by Debra J. Ackerman and W. Steven Barnett
- What Does Economics Tell Us About Early Childhood Policy? A RAND Corporation Research Brief
- Teacher-Pupil Link Crucial to Pre-K Success, Study Says by Linda Jacobson
- A Center Piece of the Pre-K Puzzle: Providing State Pre-kindergarten in Child Care Centers by Karen Schulman and Helen Blank
- Making Pre-kindergarten Work for Low-Income Working Families by Rachel Schumacher, Katie Hamm, and Danielle Ewen

Accountability

- “Keep in Minds” for Designing Early Learning Governance and Accountability by Kristie Kauerz
- Executive Summary & Differing Views on Using Child Assessment Data for Local Agency Accountability, Taking Stock: Assessing and Improving Early Childhood Learning and Program Quality, The Report of the National Childhood Accountability Task Force

Additional Facts

- Additional Facts
- 2006-07 Pre-K Enrollment by School District
- 2008 Missouri Preschool Project Programs Map